On Friday of last week we received a copy and of a pamphlet of eight pages issued by this gentleman. It consists of some in roductory vall remarks of his own, his letter published in the use, he publicly advertised his aletermination to self the material to whatever customers much apply and to bet them beaverthere are in the case.

So cattled, one where that party would have a deceded majority. What the object of the Pierce administration Democratics party, so cattled, can be, hereon only known. If having party, so cattled, can be, hereon only known. If having party, so cattled, can be, hereon only known. If having a mother a var a reason with relationship of the content of the cattled of the cattled of the content of the cattled in it, as a den of thieves and runaway negroes, is too absurd for notice. This reason for tearing down the house is of a piece with a reason assigned by him in his communication to the Journal—that people came there and stole shrubs and flowers. He did not explain how the destruction of the manision was to prevent the stealing of the shrubs and flowers, but we suppose his thought was, that, when the old house was no longer standing, there would be no object there to attract the admiring and enthusiastic countrymen of Henry Clay, and, that the flowest weath has be safe.
